

Lesson # 6

YOU AND YOUR FAMILY

How to Understand Your Place in the Home

Think

Problems at home result in problems in other areas of life. On the other hand, right family relationships provide strength and confidence for daily living. How are things in your home? Are you fulfilling your God-given responsibilities?

Answer

1. Who created the home? (Genesis 2:22-24) _____
2. Marriage is compared to what other relationship? (Ephesians 5:31-32) _____

3. How does God view divorce? (Malachi 2:15-16) _____
4. Why did Moses permit couples to be divorced? (Mark 10:6-9) _____

5. What are the only two situations where God seems to allow divorce? (Matt. 19:1-9; 1 Cor. 7:12-16)

6. Who has authority over the husband? (1 Corinthians 11:3) _____

7. Who has authority over the wife? (Ephesians 5:23) _____

8. What are husbands commanded to do? (Ephesians 5:25) _____

9. Why did God create women? (Genesis 2:18) _____

10. What are wives commanded to do? (Ephesians 5:22) _____

11. What does the Bible call children? (Psalm 127:3) _____

12. What are children commanded to do? (Ephesians 6:1-3) _____

13. How should fathers rear their children? (Ephesians 6:4) _____

14. How will a loving father correct his children? (Proverbs 13:24) _____

15. What will a spiritual father do with his children? (Deuteronomy 6:5-7) _____

16. Do you have a good relationship with others in your family? _____

17. Are you consistently fulfilling your God-given responsibility in your home? _____

Explain: _____

Memorize

Psalm 127:1a

“Unless the LORD builds the house, they labor in vain who build it.”